

Gentlemen:

I urge you to support the current "do not call" regulation in New Jersey.

The incessant, and unwanted, intrusion of "unavailable", "anonymous", recorded messages, disconnected calls, and suspect vendors is unacceptable.

I believe I have a right to bar any persons or businesses from the honed form of harassment.

The stated purpose of the challenge is solely bottom-line motivated at the expense of personal privacy and comfort.

Sincerely,

Roger T. Cole